

SASK VOLLEYBALL HALL OF FAME

Inducted 2015 – BUILDER/COACH

MARK TENNANT

Mark's skills as a coach and innovator led to three consecutive Women's Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union (CIAU) championships for the University of Saskatchewan (U of S) in 1979, 1980, and 1981.

Tennant served as president of the Saskatchewan Volleyball Association and helped establish the first provincial office for the sport. Mark founded Supervolley and was responsible for arranging tours by some of the world's volleyball powerhouses.

Mark has profoundly affected the technical development of the sport across Canada and Internationally with his books, papers, films, and conference presentations. Since 1983, Mark has served as the Chairman of the International Technical Committee, and has been responsible for supervising the preparation and operation of the semi-annual FISU Volleyball Competitions for the past fourteen consecutive Universiades. Since 2000, Mark has also had the same role as the supervisor of Beach Volleyball Universiades.

Some of Mark's many honours include induction into the Saskatoon Sports Hall of Fame, the U of S Sports Wall of Fame, and Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame as coach of the U of S Huskiette teams.

Mark was inducted as a Sask Volleyball Lifetime Member in 1989.
