

Hosting a Sanctioned Event

Procedure for Hosting Your Own Event

The first step in hosting your own tournament, athlete camp, clinic or tryout is to sanction the event with Sask Volleyball.

Objectives of Event Sanctioning

- To improve consistency in the hosting of tournaments, athlete camps, and clinics.
- To improve communication between Sask Volleyball and its members.
- To provide information needed for the organization of Provincial Championships.

Procedures for Sanctioning an Event

Registration of the event you wish to sanction must be made three weeks prior to the date of the Sanctioned Event. Events are sanctioned on a first come first served basis. Sask Volleyball will start accepting Tournament Sanctioning forms on September 15th, 2016.

Only tournaments that avoid conflicts with similar Sask Volleyball Sanctioned Events, and where Referees are available will be sanctioned. Club tournaments in the same age group as a Sask Cup will not be sanctioned on the same weekend. Club tournaments of the same age group, on the same weekend need to be more than 100km apart for them both to be sanctioned. Tournaments wanting to run on a Provincial Weekend within the Province for any age group will need special permission to be sanctioned due to referee availability.

The Sanctioning Fee of $50.00 must be paid online at the time of registering the event.

All Event Sanctioning Forms are subject to review by Sask Volleyball. Sask Volleyball will notify the host of the Event when the request for Event Sanctioning is approved.

Following the event, a summary report is to be submitted to Sask Volleyball the Monday following the conclusion of the event. For tournaments, this will include a list of all the teams that participated in the event. For athlete camps and clinics, the follow up report will include a list of participants and instructors.

Benefits of Event Sanctioning may include

- Coverage under Sask Volleyball's Insurance for the Sanctioned Event.
- Sask Volleyball web page promotion of the event.
- Access to the Sask Volleyball's Referee Program. Referee services will only be offered to Sask Volleyball Sanctioned Events.
